at 0400 on Thursday 15 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Remaining settled and largely dry, with overnight frosts.

Today:
A cold and clear start, with sunshine through the morning. Patchy fair-weather cloud will develop from the east during the afternoon, bringing a few showers to eastern areas. Feeling pleasant in the sun, especially further west, helped by light winds. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
Patchy cloud will clear during the evening leaving a dry night with many clear spells. A widespread frost is expected and a few fog patches may form in the east. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Friday:
Plenty of early sunshine on Friday before patchy cloud develops again. It should remain dry and winds will be light. Another clear and frosty night will follow. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Dry over the weekend, with sunny spells and light winds. Cloudier on Monday, with a chance of rain in the far west. Daytime temperatures gradually rising but frosts possible overnight.
